Hanoi, Moscow boost cooperative ties

The Hanoi Party Committee (HPC) and the Moscow Communist Party Committee (MCPC) signed an agreement in Hanoi on December 26 to promote their cooperation in the future.

Signatories to the agreement were HPC Vice Secretary Ngo Thi Doan Thanh and MCPC Second Secretary Lakeev Vladimir Ivanovich.

They agreed to further strengthen their traditional relationship and cooperation to contribute to the strategic partnership between Vietnam and Russia.

They will exchange documents and other publications as well as their delegations and create favourable conditions for their socio-political organizations to establish ties.

The same day, HPC Secretary Pham Quang Nghi received the Moscow delegation, which began a three-day visit to Hanoi on December 25.
